

“I love it when you tell me a story about our time together”

Sharing stories with your little one about what you have done together means the world to them.

“Bring a sprinkle of magic to my day by telling me a story”

Using your little one's name in a made-up story or instead of a character name in a storybook, makes them feel excited and extra special.

“There's nothing better than cosying up with you for a story”

Sharing stories with your little one helps them connect with you and feel safe.

*“I really like it when you notice what I'm interested in,
and you talk with me about it”*

Talking with your little one about what they are looking at or what they're doing helps them learn more about their world.

Stories can be found in the everyday, whether you're playing in the park, walking through the countryside or exploring books in the library together.
