

The National Literacy and Numeracy Strategies

Images

Charts

Spoken Word

Ready-made text

ICT

Sorting and labelling

Symbols

Scribing

Numbers

Alternatives to written recording

Dictation to a helper

Paired recording with a fluent writer

see

Choosing or ordering symbol cards (Bliss, TEACCH, Writing with Symbols)

Use of specialist alternative forms of recording, e.g. Braille

Matching labels to parts of diagrams or pictures
Matching - labels to objects, sentences or pictures; labels to quantities, shapes and solids

Object sorts (e.g. by initial phoneme)

Use of specialist keyboards and switch devices for computer access

Predictive or voice-operated word processing software

Shape, graph and table templates; related software for mathematical recording; use of calculator

First the papyrus was gathered. Finally it was rubbed smooth. Before being pointed to a pith, from the banks of the Nile, it was cut into strips.

Making

Words, sentences and paragraphs or pages to put in order

Sorting sentences, paragraphs or short texts (for example into autobiography/biography)

Cloze procedure, where the child fills in the missing words from text

Papyrus is _____ by the river _____

Highlighting - for example verbs in one colour, nouns in another

Highlighting answers on a 100 square or number line

Use of digit symbol cards to construct number sentences

Use of sticky-back numerals or shapes; showing answers using number fans or arrow cards

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40
41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50
51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60
61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70
71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80
81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90
91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100

Making posters

Drawings/diagrams

Making a 2D or 3D display

Flow charts

Card sorts; sorting boards

Group wordstorm; one member of group acts as scribe

Tape recording

Role-play

Oral presentation

Mind mapping

Digital photo spreads

Video recording

Use of specialist keyboards and switch devices for computer access