

Suggested Reading
The Adoption Barometer, June 202 Adoption UK Adoption Barometer   Adoption UK Charity 	Education section in the main report to read Adoption UK's recommendations.
The Unlikely Dad  http://www.theunlikelydad.com/adoption	Tom's blog posts on adoption are a really uplifting read as he writes about adopting his son. Definitely one to share with colleagues.
'The Wall' Adoption UK https://www.slideshare.net/AdoptionUK/the-wall-53186287 	A quick and visual resource to show other staff members demonstrating how different physical and emotional needs may not have been met in a child that has experienced some level of trauma.
Developing and Attachment Aware Behaviour Policy Brighton and Hove City Council 	Guidance that encourages schools to develop their behaviour policies in line with attachment aware principles and developing whole school practice of a behaviour regulation policy. A great starting point for thinking about how this can be done in your setting or school.
Pupil premium: allocations and conditions of grant 2022 to 2023 - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)	Essential information about the Pupil Premium Plus grant.
Becoming and Adoption-Friendly School	The book comes with downloadable resources which can support you with the eight areas outlined of school development to support children who have experienced trauma or loss.

 Dr Emma Gore Langton and Katherine Boy
--	--

The Trauma and Attachment Aware Classroom Rebecca Brooks 	Written by teacher, foster carer and adoptive parent, Rebecca Brooks, this recently published practical guide is essential reading. It has an 'Approaches to try' after each section covered making it incredibly useful in making your practice more attachment-aware and trauma-informed.
--	--

What about me? Inclusive strategies to support pupils with attachment difficulties make it through the school day Louise Michelle Bombèr 	Describes in great detail what a genuinely supportive school day would look like in practice with a case study for primary and secondary pupils. The self-reflective notes challenge you to consider how you would feel and behave in the same situation.
--	--

Inside I'm Hurting Practical strategies for supporting children with attachment difficulties in schools Louise Michelle Bombèr 	A classroom handbook of invaluable strategies for use in the classroom. In particular the chapters on transitions and changes in the school day, supporting children with attachment difficulties to make and keep friends and the home and school partnership are well worth reading.
--	---

Better Behaviour A guide for teachers Jarlath O'Brien Listen to Jarlath O'Brien in the first Adoption UK Education Insights podcast available for free here: https://www.adoptionuk.org/education-insights-podcast 	With reflection points and 'taking it further questions and activities' prompts within the book and anecdotes from his years of experience, Jarlath O'Brien demonstrates how an approach built on empathy and understanding of the children you teach leads to a happy and healthy learning environment.
Beacon House https://beaconhouse.org.uk/ Beacon House is a team of chartered psychologists, psychotherapists and occupational therapists. As a service they have a special interest in repairing the effects of trauma and attachment disruption. They have free resources about trauma and attachment.
Young Minds https://youngminds.org.uk/ Young Minds exists so that young people have the strongest possible voice in improving their mental health with fantastic resources for school.
PAC-UK https://www.pac-uk.org/ Specialist therapy, advice, support, counselling and training for all affected by Adoption and Permanency.	