Pausing Paediatric Therapy Services

Due to the national crisis with COVID-19 we are pausing the Paediatric Speech and Language Therapy Service/Paediatric Occupational Therapy Service/Paediatric Physiotherapy Service with immediate effect 26th March 2020. As a non-essential service we have been asked by NHS England to be ready to support other services in the weeks ahead and to reduce the risk to our service users, staff and the general population.

We will aim to offer some advice and support over email for as long as is possible. Please see the contact us on our websites.

SALT: https://www.cpft.nhs.uk/training/peterborough-paediatric-speech-and-language-therapy-service.htm

Please be assured that we will be following national guidance to resume a service as quickly as we can after the current COVID-19 crisis. Children already known to our services will not be discharged, however we will not be accepting any new referrals [other than children with complex eating and drinking difficulties in Speech and Language Therapy].
Due to the COVID-19 pandemic our service offer has changed and is likely to face continuing adaptations over the coming weeks and months due to anticipated demands within the NHS (we will do our best to update you of these changes as and when they happen).

Professional Support will continue to be offered by Emotional Health and Wellbeing Practitioners: We are NO longer contactable via the normal duty telephone number but we are contactable via our duty email ccs.ehw@nhs.net. Professionals can email the duty email and request a call back if they would like to discuss EITHER a child’s emotional wellbeing (as was previously offered through duty telephone contact) OR they can now ask for a staff support type call. Please note, we are not accepting referrals for Children Wellbeing Practitioner’s (CWP) during this time.

Please note the staff support we are offering is NOT counselling or therapy but rather a space to think about and discuss your own wellbeing given the current and changing situation. We will be able to suggest and support you explore what resources and strategies may help your emotional wellbeing and will send out appropriate resources following the telephone call. If you would like to access either type of support please email ccs.ehw@nhs.net providing the following details:

Name:
Role:
Place of work:
Type of support (Child/Staff support):
Best Day/Time for us to call you:
Best contact number (please ensure this number will be contactable):

Please note that if you need to contact us sooner there is a Cambridgeshire Community Services Duty Telephone number 0300 029 50 50: it is important to be aware that this phone number is staffed by our lovely Administration Team. If you need to call them please let them know you would like to speak to an Emotional Health and Wellbeing Practitioner from the Emotional Health and Wellbeing Service. This is a new way of working for all our staff so please do be patient and use the duty email wherever possible for support from the Professional support element of our service.

Parent and Young Person Support:

We appreciate and understand that at this time there are many children, young people, parents and families as a whole that are struggling to process and understand the current situation. The offers of support from agencies are changing so below is a brief outline of the support offered by Cambridgeshire Community Services:

Young People:
Chathealth: ChatHealth - Text Messaging Service for 13-19 year olds
ChatHealth is an alternative way for young people to engage with experienced clinicians who will answer texts from 9.30am-4pm Mon-Fri on a range of topics including anything from healthy eating, smoking, self-harm and bullying.

- Young people (13-19 years) can text 07480 635 443 to start a conversation

Parents: Cambridge Community Services (CCS) Duty Telephone Line: 0300 329 50 50. Please note that this line is a contact point for all CCS services (except for Specialist Community Nurses) and is staffed by our wonderful Administration Team. When you call, please make them aware of why you are contacting us and they will pass your request of support on to the relevant team who will then get in touch with you.

We are also in the process of creating emotional health and wellbeing resources for parent’s wellbeing as well as children and young people and will share these with you when they are ready. In the meantime there are a number of useful service and resources on the Keep-Your-Head website for Adult, Child & Young People and Professional’s Mental Wellbeing: https://www.keep-your-head.com/

We are also going to be updating our website, so please see: https://www.cambscommunityservices.nhs.uk/what-we-do/children-young-people-health-services-cambridgeshire/emotional-health-and-wellbeing-services for more information.

Domestic Violence / Abuse / Neglect

With the potential risk of an increase in Domestic Violence and abuse being anticipated it would be helpful for CYP / Parents to be able to reach out for further support. By using a dedicated phrase when calling the duty line;

“we’ve ran out of toilet paper”.

The clinician will immediately know what information to gather, inform the client what action will be taken and take the appropriate action for the most relevant support for the client.

If anyone presents in this category it will be expected that they will be referred to MASH or the police in urgent cases.
