Over 75% of Cambridgeshire Primary schools have participated in this annual subscription. Being a subscribing school entitles you to the following benefits:

The latest upgrade to the Primary Personal Development Programmes that offers the most comprehensive and up-to-date resources to deliver PSHE and Citizenship in your school.

Consultancy visits with a member of the team.

Participation in the Health Related Behaviour Survey at a subsidised rate.

Extension of the Healthy Schools Programme employing newly developed whole school review and planning resources.

Access to advice and support in relation to whole school issues and managing and responding to incidents

Significant reductions on courses and conferences, resources and Life Education visits

Primary Schools out of Cambridgeshire

We are able to offer many aspects of our Wellbeing Subscription to schools outside Cambridgeshire. If you purchase a license for the Primary Personal Development Programme, you will be entitled to reduced cost courses, conferences and resources. You will also have access to telephone based consultancy and advice.
