

Baby Conference 2019 – Baby Let's Go Outside!

Our Baby Conference celebrates everything that is wonderful about working with children under 24 months. This is a good opportunity for practitioners to focus on their professional development investigating the very best practice for baby rooms and children under 24 months.

This conference is a great opportunity for practitioners working with children up to 24 months. It will also be suitable for those working with 2-3 year olds who are not meeting expected developmental outcomes.

Audience

Leaders of baby room practice, including room leaders.

This one day conference will provide practitioners with:

- An opportunity to consider national and international perspectives about what babies need to support their learning and development.
- Reflect on how to make delivery of the Prime areas exciting and unique to all children under 24 months
- Hear about research and practice that has inspired new ways of working with babies here in Cambridgeshire.
- Visit a range of market place exhibitors who specialise in resourcing for children under 24 months.

Key notes:

- Pint sized adventures out of doors – Exploring the possibilities that out of doors experiences offer babies and toddlers – Sally Thomas
- Inspired by Babies, every moment matters, a focus on the importance of touch, connection – Julie Revels
- Baby Steps – Transforming outdoor learning one step at a time – Kristen Dutton
- There's no such thing as bad weather! – Sarah Piotrowski
